

8-13-1911

Letter from Elizabeth H. Bartol, Pigeon Cove, Massachusetts, to Anne Whitney, Shelburne, New Hampshire, 1911 August 13

Elizabeth H. Bartol

Wellesley College Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Bartol, Elizabeth H. and Wellesley College Archives, "Letter from Elizabeth H. Bartol, Pigeon Cove, Massachusetts, to Anne Whitney, Shelburne, New Hampshire, 1911 August 13" (1911). Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence. 497. https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence/497

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4) at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

comes day by day. And soon it will be autumn again; & what then?

In all sorts of ways; find us as ever joined all those by the hand of E & R

Pigeon Cove, Nfld.

August 23, 1911
[18]

Dear & faithful. It is the last of the Frio who comes to speak to you today. a gift bearer of the love of all here, & many thanks for letters.

two - most welcome, most enlightening

We all rejoice in the success & happiness of that phantom of delight, dear Miss Daffan. Her shining presence comes before me vividly so I write her name. We do not think much here - kept indeed the sky & the sea which of late have been beautiful beyond words. That spell of heat & water laid us low; that some days of incompetence. She was not at her best: & dear, Greene is now coughing much more than is good for her.

Nobody has seen C.H.D. so far as I know! The cutting we sent appeared in the Transcript, the Evening before: & so the house & number in Jay St. were the same as her residence a year ago, we guessed the might have resurrected sufficiently to take her usual trip for Washington! My last letter informed me that she was expecting death from day today.

Of course O.D. meets her nowhere everywhere, as the shining ones of their dull world always do. I am so glad you love her - she yes!

So we do come to you now!
And it is good that your kids give you of their strength & also.
August is here - September

Miss Anne Whitney
Shelburne

1911

New Hampshire

Dr -
H.H.B.
F.B.G.